Who We Are...

The United Black Golfers Association, Inc. is a Laurelton, Queens, N.Y. based 501(c)(3) not-for-profit Corporation founded on 3/3/2014 as a social organization that provides opportunities for golfers and individuals who are interested in the game of golf to meet and engage in activities that promote unity, personal growth and enrichment through the sport of golf.

We provide a conduit through which members have an opportunity to show their good will and support through fundraising endeavors designed to benefit students, other not-for-profit organizations, charities and groups engaged in activities geared towards the betterment of the health and welfare of our community.

Membership Benefits...

- Opportunities to meet and engage with new people who share the love of golf
- Access to a network of golfers which provides numerous golfing opportunities during the golfing season
- Travel opportunities to experience different out of state courses
- Annual tournament participation
- Opportunities for community outreach
- Annual winter holiday gala

Our Community Outreach...

- Scholarship program awards annual scholarships to new high school graduates to help them achieve their educational goals
- Yearly holiday toy drive to provide toys to children whose families may be experiencing difficult times
- Yearly hat/scarf drive for individuals in need of warm winter outerwear
- Yearly donation of formal wear for students in need of prom attire
